WELCOME TO CAN MAJA

A sanctuary above the Mediterranean.

Discreetly nestled into the hills of Santa Eulalia, Can Maja is a contemporary Mediterranean residence fully renovated within the last two years — designed for those who seek absolute privacy without compromise. Floor-to-ceiling glass opens onto sweeping views of the sea and the old town, while interiors of marble, oak and brushed metals create a feeling of calm sophistication.

Wake to Ibiza's sunrise over the bay, spend the day by the heated indoor pool, and end it under the stars: Can Maja is built around one promise — a stay without compromise, in a setting that is rare on the island.

Where the pineforest meets the sea.

Can Maja sits in one of Santa Eulalia's most coveted residential pockets — high above the bay, oriented to the east so the sunrise paints the sea each morning. Surrounded by Mediterranean pines yet minutes from the marina, the island's best beach clubs and Las Dalias, it offers a rare blend of seclusion and access on Ibiza's eastern coast.

PART I

Arrival.

A discreet entrance, framed by palms and stone.

The grand entrance hall

Marble corridor in oak and stone

PART II

Living spaces.

Light, marble and sea — the heart of the villa.

THE LIVING ROOM

An open horizon.

The grand salon flows seamlessly between living, library and sea-view lounge. Floor-to-ceiling sliding doors open onto the terrace, blurring the line between interior comfort and the Mediterranean light outside. Original artworks and statement pieces by international designers lend personality to a space conceived for both intimate evenings and grand gatherings.

DINING

A table with a view.

The main dining room — emerald velvet chairs around a custom marble table — seats ten guests beneath a sculptural light installation. Towards the kitchen, a private bar and climate-controlled cellar showcase a curated selection of Mediterranean wines and champagnes. Whether breakfast at sunrise or a long, candlelit dinner, every meal becomes an occasion.

PART III

Outdoor living.

Where Ibiza happens — terraces, pergolas and saltair.

AL FRESCO

Long lunches, sunrise swims — the rhythm of the island.

PART IV

The bedrooms.

Five suites, sized for true rest.

Sleeping arrangements

Five suites, all with en-suite bathroom — sleeps up to 10 guests in comfort.

PART V

Wellness.

Indoor pool, gym, gallery — a private retreat within the villa.

INDOOR POOL & GALLERY

Sanctuary.

A heated indoor pool extends along a wall of glass that opens to the sea-view terraces. The double-height space functions as both wellness studio and private gallery, with statement contemporary canvases set against warm linen-textured walls. A perfect refuge for off-season stays, sunrise lengths or long, slow afternoons.

WELLNESS

A place to slow down — at any hour, in any season.

OPEN-AIR GYM

Train with a view.

Set on its own terrace beneath a slatted timber pergola, the fully-equipped open-air gym overlooks the sea — a rare amenity for a private rental. Cardio machines, a complete weight-training station and free-weight area allow guests to maintain their routine without ever leaving the property.

PART VI

Views & sunrises.
